There had been more or less talk about the advantages of a consolidation, and it was possible that some speculator might have been feeling the pulse of New York capitalists with that end in view. Any man was privileged to do the same thing, but it did not concern him in the least one way or the other. him in the least one way or the other. He had succeeded in getting his case to the United States Court, and if he could not get justice where he had the other suit, would get that transferred also. After he got through with them he would hear what they had to ray about a comolidation, but not before.

The managers of the old company claim that their business has increased since the opening of the new com-pany's lines. If that statem at is true it is an undubitable proof of a very large increase in the growth of the city, because the Citizens' Comcany undoubtedly carries a great many who formerly traveled by the old lines. As a matter of fact, every line it has, except that out Madison street, takes from the old company. It is doing a so endid busines, already paying very we l on the amount invested. The Scotland line has a fine patronage, as allo that to the north tine of Elmwood.

common percus plasters—which you can get for a song at any of the Obsau John drug-giers—you have murely threwn away your money, for one Eggison' Captine Plaster is worth them all. The reason is this: Benworth them all. The transon is this: Henson's is the only perconsplaster in the market that is hencestly and skillfully made and scientifically medicated. Others are no more than nominal imitations of Henson's. They are cheap because they possess none or the ingredients which render Henson's valuatie. The latter are prompt to act, pleasant to wear, and cure in a few hours all ments which others will not even relieve.
The public are especially warned against socalled "Capsicin," "Capsicin," "Capucin," or "Capsicine" plaaters, as worthless articles intended to deceive. Ask for Benson's, and look for the "Three Scals" trademark and the word "Capcine" cut in the

By the recommenda ion of Hov. C. C. Davis, I used Dr. Moniey's Lemon Elixir for a severe chronic case of indisection, palpitation and irregular section of the heart, with constipation and billousness. I also suffered greatly with gravel and great pains in the back and kidneys, much of the time unable te stand alone. I was treated by many physic as and used many remedies, but got no relief. Dr. Monley's Lemon Elixir alone has made a perfect cure of all these diseases. I am now a well man. My wile has for many years seffered greatly with constipation and sick headaches, from which she could get no relief. The Lemon Elixir has permanently eured her.
